Prof. Will Taylor and E. B. Kellogg landed in Lexington Saturday night about 8:30 in an automobile without the 1914 tag on it. The license had been applied for but the tag had not been received. When they learned that four drivers had been taken in there that day for failure to have the tag on their cars, they made preparations for getting out of the city as early Sunday a. m. as any constable could be expected to forsake his bed for the sake of grabbing other law breakers of this variety and they got. It is said by the hotel porter that the Taylor kept one eye open all night and both most of the time.

Easter Services

The local churches held special services in some instances to mark the day celebrating the Resurrection. The M. E. church held a special service Sunday morning. The occasion was given to songs and instrumental music and a sermon. The choir sang a number of anthems. Miss Lorena Holman sang a solo and Mrs. Singleton played a violin solo. An anthem was sung in which the solo work was done by Misses Frances Holman and Sarah Lockhart. The sermon, with especial application to the day, was preached by Rev. Mitchell.

In the evening the churches of the city united with Rev. Mitchell's congregation in another special service, this to celebrate the fortieth anniversary of Rev. Mitchell's entry into the ministry and his thirteenth year's work here. The choir was assisted by the M. E. choir. The soloists were Mrs. Singleton and Mrs. John Carskadon. C. F. Lamkin made the opening talk, an eulogy of Rev. Mitchell. Rev. Myers delivered the sermon and he was followed by J. M. Barker of Brunswick who represented the church at Brunswick. Rev. Mitchell thanked the speakers for their kind words and gave a slight review of his work here. The church was crowded and the service an enjoyable one.

Drying Decatur

Decatur, Ill. has a commission form of government and at the last election was voted dry. The commissioners say that the people voted it dry and they are going to make it dry. They will not permit the sale of liquor for medicinal purposes, will not license "soft drink" parlors and will not permit liquor to be shipped into the city.

THE BIG RACE

A Close One

The girls in the race are running nearly even. Although a large number of votes have been turned in during the last week, there is no change in the standing from that of last week.

Holding your place is very well, but is it not better to rise and get ahead of the others; that is what you must do to win. To win you should sell the pens, for they are what will bring your standing up in the contest.

Get your share of them now. They are for you and you should get them.

Come in, see me about the pens while there are a few left.
